From our Minister,
The Revd Audrey Browne

Here is a beautiful story to help us reflect on the resurrection:

As a result of an explosion, a small group of miners were trapped underground in a confined area.

The telephone on the surface still worked, and the miners indicated that they were all alive but they feared there was not enough air. They felt they would die without urgent help. There was not much hope of getting them out alive. There were tons of earth to be removed and it was thought that it would be too late by the time the earth was removed. With a special drill, the rescue team bored a hole to where the men were and then pumped air into the cavern. Although it took another three days to get them out, the men were found well and in good spirits.

When asked what it was like, one of the men replied, 'A bit like the resurrection. We were sealed in a tomb, unable to get out. Then, we were given new air, the breath of life from the air pumped into us.

And then, we were rescued and raised into the light.'

Have a blessed week. Audrey
