From our Minister,
The Revd Audrey Browne

There is a story about a pastor who organised a Holy Land Tour. One day, the group made a bus trip from Jerusalem to Bethlehem. Along the way, the pastor told the group how they would see many sheep and shepherds, and to think about how Jesus was the Good Shepherd, and how shepherds always went in front of the sheep, leading them; he never went behind, beating, pushing or shoving the sheep.

Suddenly, the bus was stopped for a herd of sheep to cross the road. The pastor was surprised to see a man with a stick beating the sheep. The pastor got off the bus and confronted the man, "Look here, everything I've read says the shepherd leads the sheep with love, he doesn't come from behind beating and pushing." "That's true," the man said, "but I am not a shepherd, I'm a butcher."

Have a blessed week. Audrey
