From our Minister,

The Revd Audrey Browne ....

wealthy businessman for charity:

Every week, the rich man listened to the beggar's tale of woe and graciously gave him a generous gift.

One day, the wealthy businessman took the beggar aside and said to him, "Listen, you know I will continue giving you a nice amount every week. You don't have to convince me anymore. A little less whining about your condition, and we would both be happier. The beggar drew himself up to the full stature of his ragged pride and dignity.

"My good sir," he replied indignantly, "I don't teach you how to be a millionaire; please don't teach me how to be a beggar." Jesus teaches us how to go to the Father. It is up to us to follow the route.

Jesus says, "I am the way, the truth and the life; no one comes to the Father except through me.

Here is a brief story I am using this Sunday:

A beggar came every week to beseech a

Have a blessed week. Audrey
